

Our Beloved Heavenly Father,

As we prepare for the upcoming Eparchial Youth Conference, we gather as one in your presence today to thank you and praise you for your manifold blessings given to us. Look not at our weaknesses, O Merciful One, but send forth your Holy Spirit to strengthen our minds, bodies, and spirits to allow us to serve you in our fullest selves all the days of lives. We implore you to work within us so that our works may be a blessing and inspiration for our Syro-Malankara Catholic Church, especially through us, your youth.

We humble ourselves before you, O Loving One (bow your heads). Open our hearts and empower us with your divine touch. Grant us the strength to become strong soldiers and devout leaders in this life. Let no evils or distractions of this world trample our vocation to holiness, and transform us as your instruments so that your Will shall be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.

We, your youth and your children, adore you, O Gracious One. Ignite the fire within us to love and serve you. We hunger for the wisdom, patience, and your Word to fulfill us rather than the finite and unfulfilling treasures of this world. Prune us to be fruitful by the power of the Holy Spirit to grow in steadfast faith and devotion and lead the world around us in your footsteps.

We dedicate all the planning, preparations, and execution of the anticipated Youth Conference into your hands, and we pray that this event may bring your children, whom you dearly love, closer to you so that they may experience your divine embrace.

We believe in the Light and Hope to come. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen!
